REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

Circular No. 3896-903, dated 2nd September 1913.

The undersigned has noticed in several cases that came up before him that sufficient attention is not being paid by Revenue Officers to Section 7, clause 4, of the Village Offices Regulation which requires that no village officers should be punished without a previous personal enquiry held by the punishing authority. Failure to observe this provision has rendered it necessary for the undersigned to remand for proper enquiry and fresh disposal several cases in which the order of punishment was otherwise proper. To prevent such a result occurring, it is desirable that in ordering punishments Revenue Officers should pay strict regard to the requirements of the section quoted above.

K. DORASWAMI IYER,
Revenue Commissioner.
